ABSTRACT

This web page is best platform for the farmers to sell their goods to customers through administrator. The purpose of this website to give profits to the farmer. It allows the farmer to sell their crop at their own price. It provides a direct link to farmers and customers. The farmer will get more profit as compared to the manual existing system. In this proposed system customers will directly communicate with the farmers through website. This will make difference between market price and farmer's price. The farmer need not go to the market for selling products. The market assigns multiple taxes in farmer product but our web page avoids multiple taxes and give profit to the farmer and natural food to customers.
